FIRE-SIDE STUDIES.

By VALENTINE W. BROMLEY.

THE GREAT DIVIDE:

A Narrative of Travels in the Upper Yellowstone in the Summer of 1874. By the EARL OF DUNRAVEN.

With numerous striking full-page Illustrations, by VALENTINE W. BROMLEY.

"A jolly, rollicking narrative of adventure and sport, mixed up with a great deal of useful information concerning one of the most interesting regions in the American continent."—Nature.

"There has not for a long time appeared a better book of travel than this. It is full of clever observation, and both narrative and illustrations are thoroughly good."—Athenaeum.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait, 9s.

JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHREN:

A Dramatic Poem. By CHARLES WELLS.
With Vignette Portrait and an Introductory Essay by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

"In its combination of strength and delicacy, in sweet liquid musical flow, in just cadence, and in dramatic incisiveness of utterance, the language throughout keeps closer to the level of the Elizabethan dramatists than that of any dramatist of subsequent times. . . . Mr. Swinburne does not praise the character of Pharaoh over much when he places it only behind the Cleopatra of Shakespeare, and adds that all women in literature after these two seem coarse or trivial when they touch on anything sensual. . . . A poet has never been saved from oblivion, and the present and future generations will be richer by a work they could ill afford to lose."—Athenaeum.

Small 8vo, Roxburghe binding, price 10s. 6d.

THE FIRST EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE, 1623.

An exact reproduction of the rare original, in reduced facsimile, by a photographic process.

With an Introduction by J. O. HALLIWELL PHILLIPS, Esq.
"To Messrs. Chatto and Windus belongs the merit of having done more to facilitate the critical study of the text of our great dramatist than all the Shakspeare clubs and societies put together. A complete facsimile of the celebrated first folio edition of 1623 for half-a-guinea is at once a miracle of cheapness and enterprise. Being in a reduced form, the type is necessarily rather diminutive, but it is as distinct as in a genuine copy of the original, and will be found to be as useful and far more handy to the student than the latter."—Athenaeum.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra gilt, 7s. 6d.

"One of the most moving histories that has been published in modern days. Charming correspondence, and still more charming table-talk."—Morning Post.

MR. SWINBURNE'S NEW POEM.

SECOND EDITION. Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 6s.

ERECHTHEUS.

By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

"Matured thought and ripened power are brought to the task of re-creating old fables. . . . Our extracts, copious as they are, fail to convey an idea of the sustained strength and beauty of the entire work, which we are inclined to rank as Mr. Swinburne's masterpiece."—Athenaeum.

MEMOIRS OF THE SANSON FAMILY.

Compiled from Private Documents in the possession of the Family (1688-1847), by HENRI SANSON.

Translated from the French, with an Introduction, by CAMILLE BARRERE.

"A faithful translation of this curious work, which will certainly repay perusal, not on the ground of its being full of horrors—for the original author seems to be rather ashamed of the technical aspect of his profession, and is commendably reticent as to its details—but because it contains a lucid account of the most notable causes célèbres from the time of Louis XIV. to a period within the memory of persons still living. . . . The memoirs, if not particularly instructive, can scarcely fail to be extremely entertaining."—Daily Telegraph.

YACHTING in the ARCTIC SEAS:

Or, Notes of Five Voyages of Sport and Discovery in the Neighbourhood of Spitzbergen and Novaya Zemlya. By JAMES LAMONT, F.G.S., F.R.G.S., Author of "Seasons with the Sea-Horses." With numerous full-page Illustrations by WILLIAM LIVERSAY, M.D.

"After wading through numberless volumes of icy fiction, concocted narrative, and spurious biography of Arctic voyagers, it is pleasant to meet with a real and genuine volume. . . . He shows much tact in recounting his adventures, and they are so interspersed with anecdotes and information as to make them anything but wearisome. . . . The book, as a whole, is the most important addition made to our Arctic literature for a long time."—Athenaeum.

"Mr. Lamont has taken a share distinctively his own in the work of Arctic discovery, and the value of his labours as an amateur explorer is to be attributed to the systematic manner in which he pursued his investigations, no less than to his scientific qualifications for the task. . . . The handsome volume is full of valuable and interesting information to the sportsman and naturalist; it would be difficult to say which of the two will enjoy it most."—Scotsman.

In 1 vol. crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait and Facsimiles, 12s. 6d.

THE FINAL RELIQUES OF FATHER PROUT.

Collected and Edited by BLANCHARD JERROLD.

"It is well that the present long-delayed volume should remind a younger generation of his fame. . . . The charming letters from Paris, Florence, and Rome. . . . are the most perfect specimens of what a foreign correspondence ought to be."—Academy.
"Sparkles all over and is full of interest. Mahony, like Sydney Smith, could write on no subject without being brilliant and witty. . . . A biographical sketch is prefixed."—British Quarterly Review.

WHITE CONQUEST:

America in 1875.

By WILLIAM HEPWORTH DIXON.

"The best written, most instructive, and most entertaining book that Mr. Dixon has published since 'New America.'"—Athenaeum.
"White Conquest" is no whit inferior to the author's other writings; indeed, in some respects, it may be said to be superior. It has all the old brilliancy of description, the same sense of humour, and the wonderful accumulation of facts, historical and otherwise, to which Mr. Hephworth Dixon has accustomed his admirers; and besides these merits the volumes acquire an additional charm from the fact that they deal with romantic and comparatively unknown regions; and a special value, because they deal with the gravest of modern social problems."—Morning Post.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY,

the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

SUPPLEMENTARY SERIES.

ANCIENT CLASSICS FOR ENGLISH READERS.

Edited by the Rev. W. LUCAS COLLINS, A.M.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The marked success and general popularity of the Series of "ANCIENT CLASSICS FOR ENGLISH READERS," lately concluded in Twenty Volumes, has been accompanied by some regrets, expressed both by the friendly critics of the press and in private quarters, at its not having been made somewhat more comprehensive.

This has induced us to announce the issue of a "Supplementary Series," intended to comprise the works of some few Latin and Greek authors which, for various reasons, were not included in the original plan.

This Series will appear, like the preceding, in quarterly volumes, at half-a-crown each, and in the same size and type. It will not be extended beyond eight or ten such volumes. These will include the works of ARISTOTLE, THUCYDIDES, DEMOSTHENES, LIVY, LUCRETIVS, OVID, CATULLUS (with TIBULLUS and PROPERTIUS), ANACREON, PINDAR, &c.

THE NEW VOLUME,

LIVY,

By the Rev. W. LUCAS COLLINS, A.M.

Will be published next week, price 2s. 6d.

Extracts from Reviews of the First Series.

"It is impossible to praise too highly the conception and execution of this series of the Classics. They are a kind of 'Bibliotheca Classica' for unlearned readers, but executed by men of the most accomplished scholarship, and therefore conveying the very colour and tone of the authors. They will be as pleasant to scholars as they are valuable to those who know only their mother tongue."

"It is difficult to estimate too highly the value of such a series as this in giving 'English readers' an insight, exact as far as it goes, into those old times which are so remote and yet to many of us so close."

Saturday Review.

All the Volumes of the First Series may be had separately, price 2s. 6d. in cloth; or the whole bound in 10 Vols., vellum backs, for 2l. 10s.

THE LIFE OF LORD PALMERSTON:

1846-1865.

BY THE

HON. EVELYN ASHLEY, M.P.

ENGLAND: Literary and Social, from a German Point of View. By JULIUS RODENBERG. In 8vo, 14s.

"A very excellent book on England, alike instructive and amusing, has left the German press, by Julius Rodenberg. It is a worthy sequel to the various similar publications by which the author has endeavoured to make his countrymen know and love England. Literary essays of uncommon merit are relieved in these toiling pages by historical sketches, and descriptions of men and scenery. The book is so full of valuable matter, and so well written, that it is certain to be an interesting addition to English literature."—Times.

"We hail the appearance of these pleasing essays in their present form with unfeigned satisfaction. They are placed before the English reader in an excellent translation, and they will enable him to see how an educated, intelligent, and impartial foreigner regards us in a social and literary aspect."—Standard.

THE DEAD CITIES OF THE ZUYDER ZEE. From the French of HENRI HAVARD. By ANNIE WOOD. In 8vo, with 10 Illustrations, 14s.

"A fresh and charming work. Mr. Havard has discovered a true terra incognita in the centre of Europe, and has caught, just as it was disappearing, a phase of life highly picturesque, and pleasant for the artist's eye. Mr. Havard has gone among the sleepy cities of the Zuyder Zee with a loving eye. He is a keen and thoughtful observer, and it is apparent on every page of his bright, sparkling narrative, that he really likes the people and their ancient ways, and the consequence is that he inspires his readers with the same feeling."—Observer.

"Mr. Havard's interesting account of these towns, which, once prosperous, have now fallen into decay, seems to have been published at the very nick of time. Not much cared for by the Dutch, they are, as Mr. Havard points out, absolutely unknown to the other nations of Europe; while attention is now being directed to them by the project just formed for draining the Zuyder Zee, on whose shores they stand."—Pall Mall Gazette.

TEN YEARS OF MY LIFE. By the Princess FELIX SALM-SALM. In 2 vols. crown 8vo, with a Portrait of the Princess, 21s.

"The Princess Felix Salm-Salm is one of those persons who cannot be accused of mistaking their vocation when they take to writing their personal memoirs. Many of the Princess's recollections are really valuable as contributions to history, while all her experiences and adventures are told so as to make them very agreeable reading."—Saturday Review.

"A copious and interesting narrative of facts."—The World.
"A book of a more interesting and entertaining character has seldom come into our hands. . . . We have not space to follow this brave and adventurous lady further, but must content ourselves with referring our readers to her narrative, assuring them that they will find it well worth perusal."—Standard.

"MANN" and MANNERS at the COURT OF FLORENCE; 1740-1788. Founded on the Letters of Sir Horace Mann to Horace Walpole. By Dr. DORAN, F.S.A., Author of the "Lives of the Queens of England of the House of Hanover," "Table Traits and Something on Them," &c. In 2 vols. 8vo, 35s.

"Those who have already some knowledge of the eighteenth century are desirous of adding fresh links to previous facts, and following up old acquaintances in new climes, will find here no mean entertainment, and will not fail to thank Dr. Doran for his successful labour."—Athenaeum.

"It is almost superfluous to do more than announce that a book is by Dr. Doran in order to insure its eager welcome in every reading household. Assuredly expectation will not be diminished when he treats of so stirring a time and so interesting a city."—Morning Post.

"Sir Horace Mann's letters are delightful reading. They sparkle with anecdote and entertaining court gossip, contain numerous life-like portraits of celebrated persons, and from beginning to end of the 900 pages to which they extend, have hardly a single dull or uninteresting one."—Standard.

"We are to thank Dr. Doran for having, in these two handsome volumes, left us all that is choice in the way of anecdote, or valuable in the way of information."—The World.

SKETCHES OF AUSTRALIAN LIFE AND SCENERY.

By ONE WHO HAS BEEN A RESIDENT FOR THIRTY YEARS.

Demy 8vo, cloth extra, price 14s.

"Sketches of Australian Life and Scenery" is one of those volumes which, under the outward semblance of a novel, profess to record facts and scenes of which only the names and a few necessary connecting sentences are fictitious. Yet so evidently truthful are the sketches, and at the same time so honest and void of offence, that it is only in the natural regard of the writer to disclose to all the world the place and circumstances of a quiet life's romance, or in the wish to impart a more emotional interest to the tale, that we can discover a reason for any disguise at all. . . . Altogether these 'sketches,' though rather slight, are very agreeable reading, whether we take them as a novel or as a series of descriptions of men and manners in Victoria."—Graphic.

THE ECCLESIASTICAL GAZETTE;

OR, MONTHLY REGISTER of the AFFAIRS of the CHURCH of ENGLAND, &c.

The ECCLESIASTICAL GAZETTE was established in 1838 for the purpose of circulating among the Clergy and Laity authentic information on all subjects relating to the Church. It was not intended to be a vehicle for theological discussions or opinions, but a record of facts, and a general medium of intelligence.

With these objects in view, it will be the aim of the present Editor and Publishers to produce, so far as is possible, a complete and valuable record of the work of the Church, and its various auxiliary Institutions.

The ECCLESIASTICAL GAZETTE, beside the ordinary information respecting the Clergy, the Universities, and the Institutions of the Church generally, contains Notices and Circulars from the Bishops, Archdeacons, and other Ecclesiastical Authorities, Acts of Parliament, Decisions of the Courts of Law, Parliamentary Reports, Committee Evidence, and other authentic documents, which relate to the interests of the Church and the Clergy. One of its chief features is the insertion of authorised Reports of the Proceedings of the Church Societies, together with monthly Extracts from their Correspondence. The state of the Church in the Colonies and the condition of Foreign Churches are objects of great attention. Authentic Documents, or Communications, upon these subjects are frequently inserted. Thus an extended view is presented of the state of Ecclesiastical Affairs, both at home and abroad.

The ECCLESIASTICAL GAZETTE will be forwarded as hitherto, and until further notice, to the resident Clergyman of every parish throughout England and Wales gratis, and to others on payment, in advance, of 6s. annually.

The present number of the ECCLESIASTICAL GAZETTE contains a Report of the case of Clifton v. Ridsdale, before the Court of Arches, under the Public Worship Regulation Act.

SHAKESPEARE COMMENTARIES. By Dr. G. G. GERVINUS, Professor at Heidelberg. Translated, under the Author's superintendence, by F. E. BUNNETT. With a Preface by F. J. FURNIVALL, Esq.

Extract from Mr. F. J. Furnivall's Introduction to the Work.

"The profound and generous 'Commentaries' of Gervinus—an honour to a German to have written, a pleasure to an Englishman to read—is still the only book known to me that comes near the true treatment and the dignity of its subject, or can be put into the hands of the student who wants to know the mind of Shakespeare." These words were written by me in the autumn of 1875, when I founded the New Shakespeare Society. Their truth has been confirmed by all the best judges to whom I have spoken about Gervinus's 'Commentaries' since."

"There is, of course, no necessity to formally recommend such a well-known work. We merely say that Mr. Furnivall's Introduction gives it a new value."—Westminster Review.

"It is to the pages of the learned Gervinus that the lovers of Shakespeare should go if they want to see an intellectual apotheosis of his genius."—Daily Telegraph.
